Description

The University of Bergen is one of 3 partner Institutions UWE has in Bergen. Located in 5 different buildings in the centre of Bergen, it's Department of Contemporary Art (KMD) has around 600 students. The department has an open structure that allows students to pursue their interests and experiment across disciplinary boundaries.

Surrounding Area

Bergen is the second largest city in Norway, and is known as 'the gateway to the fjords'. It is surrounded by mountains, has a cool, oceanic climate and plentiful rainfall. Bergen hosts culture and film festivals annually, and is the street art capital of Norway.

Accommodation

Students are housed in various locations on and off campus. Accommodation is administered by the Student Welfare organisation (Student Union).

How to apply

When successfully selected by UWE and nominated to KMD, you will need to apply online and upload:

- Passport scan
- Transcript
- CV, Motivation statement and portfolio (hard copy or digital) by email

Application deadline: 15 October
