

10 Top Tips

To improve your marks for Business students

These tips will help you do your best during your studies at UWE Bristol. There is a whole range of support and resources out there for you.

1

Ask for help: don't be afraid to contact your tutor, peers, Library and Learning Hub staff. No matter what stage you're at, get in touch – there is lots of support available.

Read your assessment brief carefully and make sure you understand the assignment title and what you need to do.

2

Complete Unit 1 of the 'Introduction to Business Information Skills' (IBIS) tutorials so that you can confidently search for information for your subject.

Attend a 'How to improve your critical writing' workshop as showcased by Lily Diyemowei, SUVP Education as she explains how this very course improved her grades. Watch Lily's story.

4

Language for critical writing: find out how to use linking words to develop your academic argument and how to use 'hedging' language to express uncertainty.

Use the Manchester Academic Phrasebank to find phrases to use in your writing to organise your thoughts and ideas.

6

7

Find out more about the 3 stages of improving your writing: reviewing, editing and proofreading.

Submit sections of your work to Studiosity for feedback within 48 hours.

8

9

For projects and dissertations, you can find tips for business here.

Take a look at the How to improve your work before submitting workbook and the How to put your reading into your writing workbook.
