PLACEMENT FEES FOR HOME AND EUROPEAN UNION STUDENTS ON POST 2012 FEES

For students registering on their course for the first time from 2012 onwards the fee charged for the placement year is directly related to the number of credits studied during the placement year. Therefore, if the placement module is 30 credits, a fee is charged for the 30 up to the maximum fee cap for placement years, from academic year 14/15 this is 20% of the full time equivalent year fee a maximum of £1,850.

Where the placement credit is in addition to the 360 taught credits required for the 3 years of study at the University the charge for the placement credit is in addition to the fees charged for the 3 taught years.

Where the placement credit is included in the 360 taught credits required for the course then successful completion of the credits reduces the fee due for the third year by the tuition fee amount paid in the placement year. Therefore, if the placement year required 30 credits, a student will be required to pay for the 30 up to the maximum fee cap for placement years, from academic year 14/15 this is 20% of the full time equivalent year fee, details can be found on the tuition fees pages. If these credits are taken from the third taught year a student will normally then study a further 90 credits (to complete the 360 required for the course) and will be charged for the 90 credits only, this will be the full year fee less the amount paid during the placement year.
