Description

The Accademia di Belle Arti Di Bologna (ABABO) has origins dating back to 1582. It is located in the University quarter of Bologna – the 7th largest city in Italy. The city in Northern Italy is an important cultural and artistic centre and was European Capital of Culture in 2000.

Surrounding Area

An important cultural and artistic centre, Bologna's importance in terms of landmarks can be attributed to homogenous mixture of monuments and architectural examples (medieval towers, antique buildings, churches, the layout of its historical centre) as well as works of art which are the result of a first class architectural and artistic history.

Accommodation

Accommodation privately arranged - see ABABO's incoming exchange pages for guidance and useful links.

How to apply

When successfully selected by UWE and nominated to Bologna you will need to provide:

- Completed online application
- CV, Motivation statement and portfolio (hard copy or digital) by email
