Section C – Evidence of means-tested benefits

Please complete this section and return the application form along with six months annotated bank statements, dating back to 1st March 2021. These must show monthly receipt of the specific means tested benefits indicated below. This is to confirm that on 1st September 2021, and for six continuous months prior to that date, you and/or your partner are in receipt of the following means tested benefits.

On-line banking statements are acceptable providing that they contain the bank's name, logo, your name (or your Partner's name), sort code and the last 4 digits of the account number, so that they can be authenticated.

Send this completed form to:

Student Money Service SMS@uwe.ac.uk along with supporting bank statements.

Once SMS has assessed your eligibility for the UWE postgraduate fee waiver, we will email to inform you of the outcome. You will need to send this notification to Academic Services – Student Administration Team and arrange to pay the balance of your fees (if any) to complete registration. SMS will also notify Academic Services – Student Administration Team the outcome of your application.
