

CTS 2023 Symposium- Provisional programme (detailed)

Thursday 6 July 2023, 2X112, X-block, Frenchay Campus, UWE Bristol

09:00-09:45	Registration & Coffee/tea – The Atrium X block
09:45-09:50	Symposium opening (Room 2X112) Graham Parkhurst - Professor of Sustainable Mobility & Director of CTS
09:50-10:00	Welcome from Dean and Head of School of Architecture & Environment (Room 2X112) -Mat Jones
10:00-10:20	Keynote speech (Room 2X112) John Parkin - Professor of Transport Engineering
Parallel talks
10:20-11:25	Session 1A - Room 2X112 Insights from the southwest e-scooter trial Chair: John Parkin <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Kiron Chatterjee - Professor of Travel Behaviour E-scooters in the West: What we found out and what we still need to know • Tamara Bozovic - Research Fellow E-scooters from the pedestrian perspective • Jonathan Flower – Senior Research Fellow Interactions of e-scooters with other street users: findings from an observational study 	Session 1B - Room 3X109 Dynamics of policy delivery Chair: Amina Hamoud <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Daniela Paddeu – Associate Professor Decarbonisation of last-mile deliveries in the UK: when the national strategy fails to meet local needs and expectations. • Graham Parkhurst - Professor of Sustainable Mobility The Future of Mobility May Have Arrived, But Who is Going to Deliver It? • Caroline Bartle - Senior Research Fellow How can we use theories of social cooperation to inform policy-making in sustainable travel behaviour?
11:25-11:55	Coffee/tea break - The Atrium X Block

Parallel talks

11:55-13:00	Session 2A - Room 2X112 Road investment strategies Chair: Ben Clark <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Glenn Lyons - Mott MacDonald Professor of Future Mobility A critical look at road investment and spending at a critical time.• John Parkin - Professor of Transport Engineering Behind the headlines: the Welsh Road Review Panel's future road planning and design recommendations• Alex Bertram - Senior Consultant, AECOM Planning transport infrastructure for their future? The role of young people in the Road Investment Strategy, 2015 to 2020	Session 2B - Room 3X109 Active travel & social inclusion Chair: Luc Pellecuer <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Mel Cairns - PhD student Nature and cycling experiences: a review of literature• Jonathan Flower - Research Fellow Build it and they will come, but close it and what happens?• Sarah Collings - Senior Research Fellow From stories to statistics: why 16-24-year-olds need more recognition from research and policy.
13:00-14:15	Lunch - The Atrium X Block

Parallel Workshops
14:15-15:45	Workshop 1 - Room 3X109 Improving the quality of walking environments. Tamara Bozovic This workshop invites participants to think in sequence about the relationship between walking and the quality of the walking environment, ways to measure quality, and policy actions to improve quality. The outcomes of this session will be shared at the international Walk21 conference.	Workshop 2 - Room 3X110 Transport Planners: Are you ready to play a game? Glenn Lyons and Daniela Paddeu In this workshop you will use a card game to explore whether Triple Access Planning i.e., improving access by collectively considering physical mobility, spatial proximity, and digital connectivity, is right for you as we face a new round of Local Transport Plans being developed.	Workshop 3 - Room 4X113 Decarbonising travel: strengths, weaknesses, opportunities, threats. Eva Pantelaki and Muhammad Adeel This workshop gives an opportunity for academics, policy makers, and practitioners to come together and discuss about decarbonisation of urban mobility and long-distance travel.
15:45-15:50	Presentation MSc Transport Engineering and Planning and Award ceremony of MSc prize winning dissertation (Room 2X112) Ben Clark – Associate Professor
15:50-15:55	Announcing the public launch of the serious game ‘TAP-SWOT in a BOX’ in physical and digital forms (Room 2X112) Glenn Lyons - Mott MacDonald Professor of Future Mobility, UWE
15:55-16:00	Symposium closing and reflections (Room 2X112) - Graham Parkhurst - Professor of Sustainable Mobility & Director of CTS
16:00-17:00	Drinks reception - The Atrium X Block		