

The Honorary Graduand: Miles Bullough

Doctor of Arts

Miles Bullough is co-founder and Managing Director of Bristol based Wildseed Studios, founded in 2013 to incubate new talent and produce scripted entertainment and animation for kids and adults.

Miles has been an executive producer in the kids and entertainment industries for more than 30 years, previously working at Aardman Animations as Head of Broadcast and, prior to Aardman, as Managing Director of comedy producer Absolutely Productions. Miles' Executive Producer credits encompass a wide variety of shows including Trigger Happy TV (C4), The Last Bus (Netflix), Shaun the Sheep (BBC), Counterfeit Cat (Disney), Dodo (Sky) and the upcoming Tuff Pom (France Televisions and BBC).

Miles is married to Anna Vergano and they live on a smallholding in East Devon with 40 sheep and 30 doves. Quite how he got there from a degree International History at the LSE is an ongoing mystery.
