Description

Established in the 1920's and with locations across Venice, IUAV has excellent libraries and archives filled with art resources. Its main location is just a 5 minute walk from the Venice's main bus terminal. Students studying here can choose to take extra-curricular modules at the Venice International University free of charge, and systems are also in place to allow students to find reduced-price accommodation and food (see above guide).

Surrounding Area

Venice is an historic city in north-eastern Italy sited on a group of 117 small islands separated by canals and linked by bridges. It is located in the marshy Venetian Lagoon which stretches along the shoreline, between the mouths of the Po and the Piave Rivers. Venice is renowned for the beauty of its setting, architecture, and its artworks.

Accommodation

Organised through ESU Venezia (see incoming guide on Website).
