Description

CYCU is a private, Christian university based in Taoyuan city in Taiwan. It has been ranked as the top private, comprehensive university in the country. It has an international student ambassador programme to support incoming international students as well as social events and international activities. Students would be able to take any courses from the college of Business.

Surrounding Area

Taoyuan City is located in the north west corner of Taiwan, just outside Taipei. Taoyuan means 'Peach garden' in Taiwanese and the region used to be home to many peach trees. Today, Taoyuan is home to ancient temples, bustling shopping streets and nature reserves (one of which is home to trees that are over 2,800 years old!). Students would have easy access to both Taipei and Tainan city in Taiwan and also to other major cities in Asia via the international airport.

Accommodation

Students have options to stay on campus in dormitory accommodation sharing a room with up to 3 other students (female only options available). They can also look for accommodation in the private sector if that would be preferred.

How to apply
