

The University of Otago

At a glance

Location	Dunedin, South Island, New Zealand
Students	22,108
Campuses	4
Available places	2
Placement duration	Sandwich year or Autumn / Spring Semester
Subject links	BSc & BA Geography
Taught Language	English
Term dates	First Semester: February—June Second Semester: July—October
Website	https://www.otago.ac.nz/

Description

The University of Otago is set in Dunedin, a very popular and lively city in New Zealand. It has recently been ranked in the top 1% of Universities in the world according to QS World University Rankings. Otago University has also been awarded New Zealand's top University for educational performance, beating Auckland to the top spot. Otago places a strong emphasis on students having a well-rounded University experience, and offers over 140 student clubs and societies to choose from to help aid this.

Surrounding Area

Otago University is situated in Dunedin and is within driving distance of Tunnel Beach, Catlin's Forest Park and Mount Aspiring National Park which all offer fantastic scenery and viewing locations. The University is also situated only 30 miles away from Dunedin Airport, which offers international flights to its neighbour Australia, and to London (alongside various other locations).

Accommodation

Otago University are now the proud owner of brand new University flats which are predominantly for international students. These flats are furnished, close to campus and host each student to their own individual bedroom. Each flat hosts 2-6 students, however it is important to note that there may be other options available closer to the date of arrival.

How to apply

When successfully selected by UWE Bristol and nominated to Otago you will be contacted by them and asked to fill out an online application, accompanied by the following documents:

- Academic transcript
- Passport copy
- Financial statement (required for visa application)

Further information

<https://www.otago.ac.nz/international/otago002170.html>