Description

Sejong University, which was established in 1940, is a highly reputable private university that is located in Seoul, Korea with good transport links.

Sejong has a centre dedicated to administering international students including exchange, Sejong One Stop Service Centre (SOS). They offer a wide variety of modules for exchange students taught in English.

Surrounding Area

Seoul is a blend of traditional and modern architecture and lifestyle. It's home to neighbourhoods with traditional markets, teahouses and museums as well as more recently developed business districts, shopping centres and restaurants. Good transport links makes it easy to explore all that Seoul has to offer.

Accommodation

Shared rooms in student halls are available both on campus and off campus. On site dormitories include laundry facilities within the building. Accommodation costs around £145 per month excluding one off security deposit or maintenance fees.
