Welcome to your campus

You'll be spending a lot of time at your campus over the next few years, and although it may seem daunting at first we promise you'll know your way around in no time.

You'll find everything you need to be able to get on with your studies like study spaces, computer labs and an extensive library, plus areas to relax, socialise and grab a bite to eat.

How are you going to get here?

First of all you'll need to figure out how you're going to get around.

Cycling is a good option - it's cheap, quick and there are loads of off-road cycle paths. We've got great facilities for cyclists, including bike parks, showers and lockers, and we even offer free bike check-ups. Find out more about cycle routes and facilities.

All of our campuses have bus links to the city centre and wider region - Travelwest has a complete list of all the routes and you can download their bus checker app for live updates.

Car parking is at a premium across all of our campuses - find out if you're eligible to park and how to apply for a permit on our car parking webpages. You must display a valid permit to park on any campus.

Understanding room numbers

Here's an example of how to break down a room number:

Room 2B030: the first number (2) is the floor level. The letter (B) is the block and the last number (030) is the room. So 2B030 is room 30 on the second level of B block.

To make things a bit more confusing, sometimes Level 2 is actually the ground floor of certain blocks (if they've been built on a hill!). But don't worry - you'll soon know where everything is.

Shops, facilities and places to eat

Our campuses have cafés where you grab a bite to eat in between lectures, and shops where you can pick up essentials like stationery, toiletries and snacks.

There are also local shops and supermarkets close by, meaning you're never far from everything you need.

You'll also find a dedicated Centre for Sport on Frenchay Campus. It's got a fully equipped gym, an astro pitch, a climbing wall, squash courts and a range of fitness classes.

Study spaces and computer labs

We know having space to concentrate on your work is important - that's why we have a variety of study spaces and computer labs across our campuses.

We've got rooms that you can book for group projects, social areas for relaxed study and quiet zones to help you get on in peace.

The Students' Union: campus officers

Our Students' Union Presidents and Officers are here to support students at every campus, but we also have specific Campus Officers looking out for your needs and feeding back your views to the university.

If your campus doesn't have a Campus Officer yet don't worry - by-elections will take place in the first term.
