Student volunteering week, referencing confidence, the UWE musical and more // View in a browser

Didn't get the marks you expected?

If your marks for your January assessments weren't what you expected, don't fret! Our Student Support Advisers are here to talk through your options. You can book an appointment with them via any Information Point.

Love to sing? Join UWE Singers!

UWE Singers meet every Tuesday evening (19:30, 2B025 Frenchay). You don't need any previous singing experience - just come and join in! Rehearsals this term are for the Haydn Nelson Mass to be performed at Bristol Cathedral on Saturday 18 April, 19:30.

Look after yourself and your belongings

Be sure to keep your belongings with you when you are on campus. Don't leave items on display in your vehicle - even low value items - as this can result in thieves taking a chance and damaging your car. If you see any suspicious activity, please report it to an Information Point, or UWE Security on +44 (0)117 32 86404.

Learn how to reference with confidence

Build your confidence and skills in referencing! The Library has a range of information to support your referencing needs and workshops you can attend.

If you can't make a workshop, why not try an online tutorial or Ask a Librarian with 24/7 live chat - perfect for any last minute panics!

UWE musical: The Secret Garden

11 March - 14 March 2015

This year's musical is The Secret Garden, based on the novel by Frances Hodgson Burnett. The story is of 10 year old Mary Lennox who, after losing both her parents, is sent to live with her uncle in a haunted house and discovers a secret, walled garden. This engaging plot comes to life with a beautiful musical score, period costumes and a strong student cast. Find out more and buy your tickets online >>

Bike safety: free security marking

Although bike theft at UWE is relatively low, it is becoming an increasing problem. We're investing in improved CCTV systems, but you can help by following these 3 tips to keep your bike safe:

- Come to R block bike racks (Frenchay) tomorrow, Friday 20 February, between 08:00 and 11:00 to have your bike securely marked by TravelWest bike services.
- Buy a gold or silver standard D-lock, available from your local Students' Union shop.
- Register your bike (and other valuables) via Immobilise.

Improve your study skills

Did you know the Library run free study skills workshops and drop-in sessions? Topics include referencing, critical writing, avoiding plagiarism, exam technique tips and much more.

Can't get to a session? Take a look at the study skills webpage.

International Women's Day

Join UWE, UWESU and the Bristol community and celebrate International Women's Day! In the week leading up to the day itself (Sunday 8 March), there's a range of activities you can take part in – including a talk about Women in Sport, a performance by the Drama Society and 'Can women save the planet?' at MShed.

Student Volunteering Week

23 February – 1 March

If you don't already volunteer, now's a great time to start! The Institute for Volunteering Research found that 83% of graduates believed that volunteering increased their employability skills, and 78% talk about volunteering in interviews.

UWE Volunteering offer a wide range of opportunities – get involved today.

CHANGE FOR CHANGE

Change for Change!

Want to make a positive change on campus or in the local community? In celebration of Bristol winning European Green Capital 2015, UWE is offering students funding of up to £500 to support social, economic or environmental change projects or events.

Find out more about Change for Change and the great work UWE's Green Leaders are doing.
