Resits, apply for student finance, degree shows and more // View in a browser

Resit period: Monday 13 July - Friday 24 July 2015

The summer resit period will run from Monday 13 July – Friday 24 July 2015. Please note, if you are away or on holiday during this time, and are not able to attend your resit exams or resubmit coursework as a result, this cannot be used as grounds for extenuating circumstances.

If you have any questions or concerns about your results or resits, contact any Information Point and they'll either find the answer for you, or put you in touch with an adviser who can help.

Five day extensions and extenuating circumstances

Resit coursework now available on Blackboard

Five working day extensions will not be available for resit coursework, as the pilot scheme is coming to an end. However, if you experience something major that affects your ability to sit an exam or to submit a piece of

If you have received all your marks for coursework (component B) and have not passed them with the minimum component pass mark of 35% you can get started on resit coursework now. We advise this even if you have extenuating circumstances accepted.

Arranging reasonable adjustments for resits

The deadline for arranging reasonable adjustments for the resit period is Friday 19 June.

If you had adjustments for May's exam season, they will remain in place for resits (unless they were temporary) - you don't need to worry about arranging these again.

If you had temporary adjustments, you may wish to contact the Disability Service before Friday 19 June to check whether these will be in place for any resits you may have.

If you have not had reasonable adjustments before, but think you may need some for resits, please contact the Disability Service before Friday 19 June to discuss your circumstances.

If you think it is likely that you will have resits, do not wait until you have your confirmed results to arrange your adjustments, as this is after the deadline. If you have any concerns or questions, please contact the Disability Service.

H: drive migration to new storage

IT Services are migrating student H: drives over to a new storage server, starting from Thursday 11 June. There should be minimal disruption to you as your H: drive will only be affected for one night over the eight week period.

You can continue using your H: drive as normal, but if you experience any difficulty saving your work, please save your work locally (e.g. cloud storage, memory stick). You won't lose any work currently saved on your H: drive.

If you have any concerns, please contact the IT Helpdesk on +44 (0)117 32 83612 or its.helpdesk@uwe.ac.uk.

Foundation, Level 1 and Level 2:

Thank you for taking the time to complete the Student Experience Survey in the spring. We're now able to release the initial results of the survey. There is an overview report, plus reports for each of the four faculties.

The University takes your feedback very seriously and we will be working over the next months to improve areas that are lacking. Look out for next year's 'You Said We Did' campaign to see specific examples of where we have acted directly on your feedback.

Remember, you don't have to wait for a survey to tell us if things aren't living up to your expectations – you can always tweet us @UWE Bristol or contact your Student Rep and we'll get back to you.

Glenside and Gloucester:

Assessment period: Monday 13 July - Friday 24 July 2015

Monday 13 July – Friday 24 July 2015 will either be an assessment or reassessment (resit) period for some Glenside and Gloucester students, depending on which course you are on. If you are unsure, please check your programme handbook.

Please note, if you are away or on holiday during this time, and are not able to attend your resit exams or resubmit coursework as a result, this cannot be used as grounds for extenuating circumstances.

If you have any questions or concerns about your exams, results or resits, contact any Information Point and they'll either find the answer for you, or put you in touch with an adviser who can help.

Frenchay, Bower and Glenside (not Gloucester):

Health care over the summer

The UWE Health Centre is only open during term-time, and will therefore close on Friday 19 June. If you're registered with the UWE Health Centre and need to see a doctor during the holidays, you can make an appointment with the Old School Surgery in Fishponds without having to fill out any more forms (you are registered at both surgeries).

If you need to order a repeat prescription, you should complete the Repeat Prescription Request form and either:

- Drop it in to Old School Surgery, and collect your prescription 72 hours later; or
- Send your request and a stamped addressed envelope to Old School Surgery, and they will post the prescription out to you.

If you are back at home for the summer and need to see a doctor, you can register as a temporary patient at your local GP's surgery without affecting your registration in Bristol. You can search for local services on the NHS website.

The UWE Health Centre will re-open on Monday 7 September.

Use your summer break to get ahead

We've pulled together some useful resources to help you make the most of your summer (once you've had a well-deserved break!). Whether you're off on placement, going to study abroad or want to enhance your employability skills, you'll find information to help you prepare for the next stage in your academic career.

Resources will be added to your Blackboard programme course under 'Using the summer constructively' throughout June.

Level 2 (not Education or Health):

Secure your placement

It's not too late to secure a placement for this summer. InfoHub still has over 100 placements in a variety of sectors, and support is available if you need to talk through your options:

- Drop-in to the Vacancy Plus desk in E-Zone (2D11, Frenchay campus) to talk to a Careers Adviser
- Upload your CV and covering letter for checking by asking a question on InfoHub
- Call us on +44 (0)117 32 82220 if you have any questions

Remember, once you've secured your placement you must confirm your placement with the University, or you will not be registered on your placement module.
