Resit results

All students should receive their resit results through myUWE by the end of Friday 14 August. You can find information on how to interpret your results on our myUWE support pages. If you need help interpreting them or have any questions about your results, contact an Information Point on +44 (0)117 32 85678 and they'll be happy to help.

If you have passed all of your modules, you can go ahead and register for the next academic year. Look for the 'Registration' tab in myUWE.

If you have not passed one or more of your modules, please check our referral information for advice. You may wish to book an appointment with a Student Support Adviser – they will be able to talk to you about what to do next. Telephone appointments can be arranged if you are unable to attend in person.

Timetable publication and key dates for 2015/16

Your timetable for the 2015/16 academic year will be released through myUWE on Wednesday 9 September at 12:00 (noon).

Teaching for the 2015/16 academic year starts on Monday 21 September.

Check the term dates for other key dates, including assessment and vacation periods.

Register for the new academic year

You can now register and arrange to pay your tuition fees for the new academic year through the 'Registration' tab on myUWE.

If you have recently received your results from your resits or are still waiting for your results, you may not yet have access to register. Please continue to check for the 'Registration' tab in myUWE.

Blackboard unavailable due to an upgrade

Blackboard will be unavailable from 07:00 on Tuesday 18 August until 09:00 on Thursday 20 August due to essential upgrading work. If you need access to any resources, please download them in advance of the upgrade.

Mindfulness course orientation sessions

Improve your skills with Lynda.com

UWE runs an 8 week Mindfulness-based Stress Reduction course twice a year, as a space where you can learn how to use mindfulness meditation to better manage stress in your life.

Come along to one of the free orientation sessions in September to hear more about the course and experience a short mindfulness practice, which will help you assess whether the course is right for you.

Lynda.com offers online training for software, design and business skills.

There are video tutorials to help you perfect a skill you need extra support on, or talk you through something new. You can even add completed course certificates to your LinkedIn profile.

It's completely free for UWE students, and there are apps for iPhone and Android.

Meet your new Students' Union presidents!

Your elected Students' Union Officers for 2015/16 are here to represent you and ensure you have the best student experience possible. Read their plans for the year, find out how to get in touch and say hello when you see them on campus!

Meet them >>

Spare time this summer?

UWE Careers have put together some tips on how to make the most of your summer break.

Take some time over the next few weeks to develop skills that could help you in the future – even a couple of weeks' work experience or volunteering could make the difference.

Fitness on the go!

Book fitness classes and court facilities on your phone with the new UWE Sport app - perfect for any students who use the Centre for Sport.

Download the free app now, or search 'UWE Sport' in the Apple and Google Play app stores.

Have your say on race equality at UWE

Are you a minority ethnic student? Tell us about your experiences at UWE: what works well? What challenges do you face?

Complete this online survey for a chance to win one of ten £25 vouchers for use at UWE cafes. We'll also be running workshops in October – if you'd like to come along and chat to us in person, please register your interest.

Your responses will form part of UWE's application for the race equality charter mark, which aims to improve the representation and success of minority ethnic students and staff.

Resit results

All students should receive their resit results through myUWE by the end of Friday 14 August. You can find information on how to interpret your results on our myUWE support

pages. If you need help interpreting them or have any questions about your results, contact an Information Point on +44 (0)117 32 85678 and they'll be happy to help.

If you have passed all of your modules and now completed your degree, congratulations! You will soon receive an invite to a Graduation Ceremony in November.

Level 3 (Frenchay and Bower):

If you have not passed all of your referrals and as a result have failed your award, we will send you a letter by e-mail to confirm your outcome. We will send this as soon as possible after your results are published, so please continue to check your UWE e-mail account.

During week commencing Monday 17 August, Student Support Advisers will contact you by phone to check that you have received the letter and understand the consequences, and to discuss next steps.

You can also book an appointment with a Student Support Adviser yourself via any Information Point. Telephone appointments can be arranged if you are unable to attend in person.
