Infopoints

Hi!

We hope your exams are going well. Just make sure you double check your exam times and locations on myUWE as these can occasionally change.

We know that the exam period can be an anxious time, so take time to care for your mental and physical wellbeing. Regular breaks from revision can help you feel refreshed and improve your concentration, so make time to do things that you enjoy.

The Wellbeing Service have put together some self-help resources on a variety of topics (including exams) that you might find useful.

Disability Awareness Month

Your peers have been busy creating award-winning posters and poems for the Disability Awareness Month competitions.

If you're free tonight, we'd love to see you at the Disability Awareness Month celebration in The Students' Union at UWE bar, Frenchay Campus. Doors open at 5.00pm for a 6.00pm start.

Support at the Exhibition and Conference Centre

Student Support Advisers will be at the Exhibition and Conference Centre to give you advice and support during exams. You don't need an appointment - just drop in.

Every weekday during exams between 8.45am-12.45pm and 1.15pm-4.15pm in the Yssel room at the Exhibition and Conference Centre (just follow the signs or ask a member of staff for directions).

Extenuating Circumstances

If you need to submit an Extenuating Circumstances application, talk to a Student Support Adviser as soon as possible.

Remember, if you attempt an assessment (e.g. sit an exam or submit coursework), you're making a judgement that you're fit to do so. There are only certain circumstances where you can apply for Extenuating Circumstances after an assessment.

Bristol Food Connections

We've been offered 100 free tickets for some of the Bristol Food Connections events - first come, first served!

Events include Taste the waste, How to put food on the TV, Spirited women, Fish for all seasons, What makes a great restaurant and the Masters of mixing cocktail competition.

Glenside Library summer refurbishments and closure

We're refurbishing Glenside Library to give you more space to study and more computers to use.

This means that some parts of the Library will be closed from Monday 23 May but alternative study spaces and computers will be available.

Physical collections, such as books and anatomical models, will not be available. Borrow items by Sunday 22 May if you need them over the summer.

The Library help desk will remain open and staff will be here to help you during the works.

In your final year...

Print your Higher Education Achievement Report

You have a Higher Education Achievement Report \(HEAR\) in myUWE. It's a summary of your academic achievements and extra-curricular activities during your time with us – so it's a great resource to show future employers.

It will expire with your myUWE access (42 days from the end of your course), so make sure you print it off before then!

Register for graduation

If you are graduating this summer, make sure you register sooner rather than later. The deadline is Wednesday 15 June.
