Go Global Day - Wednesday 9 November

Taking the plunge to study, work or volunteer abroad is a big step – but it's also one of the most exciting opportunities available to you as a student.

Tempted? Find out more at our Go Global Day on Wednesday 9 November, between 11:00 - 15:00 in the Frenchay Library foyer.

Meet global employers, attend a talk or just come along to ask our Go Global team a question.

Book to attend talks

Watch your fellow students' Go Global experiences

Our students who have gone global have loved their experiences and have shared them with you - watch or read!

Inclusivity 2020 launch - Bristol's mayor on campus

We want to ensure that equality and diversity are embedded in everything we do at UWE Bristol – that's why we're launching a new single equality scheme (called Inclusivity 2020).

Find out what the scheme means for you at our launch event on Wednesday 9 November, 12:30 – 14:30 on Frenchay Campus. We'll have speakers including Bristol's Mayor, Marvin Rees. Buffet lunch provided.

Register your attendance by Monday 31 October

Take on our Apprentice challenge

How much profit could you make with a £20 loan in one week?

Take part in our Global Entrepreneurship Week Apprentice challenge between Friday 11 November – Friday 18 November, run in partnership with Samsung.

You'll have to get a team together, create a 30 second advert and try to make as much money as possible. There will be prizes for the team who makes the most money – and you'll get to keep the profits.

Level 1:

Supporting you

Sometimes things don't go to plan - you might be behind with your assessments, or your tutor might be concerned about your academic progress.

If this happens, one of our Student Support Advisers may give you a call or drop you an email to check you're ok and offer advice.

But don't wait for us to get in touch – if you're having any trouble with your studies or anything else, contact an Information Point and we'll help you get things sorted.
