Busy October continues!

October is fast becoming one of our busiest months for events and activities. From Cyber Security week, to Future City Festival and Millenifest there is plenty to get involved in, both on campus and in our vibrant city!

For many of you, the next couple of weeks will also bring your first submission deadlines which can feel daunting after the excitement of summer and start of term. We all need a helping hand sometimes so if you start to feel the pressure piling up there are plenty of tools and support services available.

Cyber Security Week

Cyber Security Week is here and there are plenty of activities to help keep you, your data and your devices free from cyber crime.

Why not put your team to the test in our cyber security quiz for your chance of winning a £150 Amazon Voucher. Our Games Technology students are currently working hard on a new version of i-Patch Pirates - play for your chance of winning £20 and £50 Amazon vouchers!

Cyber Security Week is also a perfect opportunity to remind you to be vigilant to phishing email attacks - we have lots of guidance on what to look out for online.

#SpreadLoveNotHate

UWE Bristol is proud to be an inclusive campus where antisocial attitudes and behaviours are challenged and any type of harassment, assault and discrimination are not acceptable.

With National Hate Crime Awareness week taking place across the country this week, we wanted to remind you of the Speak Up campaign launched by UWE Bristol this time last year and our new reporting system Report and Support.

How can I use Report and Support?

We want you to Speak Up when you see or hear something that it is not right. Report and Support offers video animations, training, workshops, events designed to make the reporting process clearer and simpler. Report incidents online anonymously or leave contact details, and explore support options available to you.

What Brexit means for your study at UWE Bristol

As the UK prepares to leave the European Union you are bound to have questions about how this might affect you. The university will continue to monitor and update students of any changes but if you are worried read our Vice-Chancellor's message to all students and staff.

Celebrating UWE Bristol Talent

Whether you are a star volunteer or entrepreneur of the year we want to celebrate your outstanding achievements! The next event will take place in March 2020 but you still have until the end of November to enter your submissions, so get nominating!

Peer Assisted Learning (PAL)

Starting university is exciting, but it can also be daunting when your first set of deadlines start to approach. Learning alongside other students from your course, however, can be a great way to gain confidence and adjust to university life.

This is where PAL comes in. PAL is support for students, run by students and gives you the opportunity to discuss ideas and get advice on areas you feel you need more guidance. Think this might be right for you? Find out more below!

Faculty study support

With submission deadlines approaching you might feel you need a bit more academic support. Many faculties offer a variety of extra help from online study support and one-to-one help tailored for your subject area.

Assignment planner

Got an essay to submit but not sure how to plan your time? Enter your submission deadline into our handy assignment planner and it will advise how long to spend planning, researching, writing and reviewing!

Learn more

Contract cheating

With the first set of submission deadlines on the horizon we have seen an increase in emails being sent to UWE Bristol students offering essay writing services. Using this service is considered contract cheating and can be investigated as an assessment offence.

These companies or essay mills, will often target stressed and vulnerable students who feel there is no other alternative. At UWE Bristol however, there are a number of support and advice options available to you if you are struggling so don't suffer in silence. The BBC have created a short video showing how contract cheating works and some of the consequences.

Project Zulu

Want to experience travel and culture in South Africa whilst gaining practical experience relevant to your course?

Why not apply for one of the 2020 volunteering opportunities through Project Zulu!

Applications open for various programmes run by the charity and if you're successful you will be supported to travel to South Africa in August 2020 where you will lead projects linked to your course.

BY-ELECTIONS VOTING OPENS NEXT WEEK!

Thank you to everyone who put themselves forward for this year's by-elections. Nominations have closed and it is now your chance to vote for the individuals you feel will best represent the student body. Voting opens on Monday 21 October, so keep an eye out for candidates as they campaign across all campuses.

The candidates will have their manifestos published on The Students' Union website, which will give you an opportunity to find out more about the change they would like to bring to UWE Bristol. So get a cup of tea, have a read through the manifestos and get voting!
