The lack of funding for sex abuse charities should be a national disgrace. Why isn't it?

None of the 46 Rape Crisis organisations have secured funding beyond March 2016. When will the government start caring for women's needs?

When the government's budget came out last month, there was a telling statistic: women will be hit twice as hard as men by austerity. The research, commissioned by MP and Labour leadership candidate found that direct taxes on women will take £9.6bn net a year from families – and from women.

And now, research by the Guardian has found that Victims of domestic violence are being refused places at Crisis organisations in England and Wales have women's refuges across the country. beyond March 2016. This is despite a 50 per cent increase in survivors receiving ongoing support since 2014. Calls to Rape
