

How is a module structured?

- Modules are comprised of components
- Component marks are added together to give the module mark
- Components are comprised of elements (which you will know as individual assessments)
- Element marks are added together to give the component mark

