

University of Zagreb

At a glance

Location	Zagreb, Croatia
Erasmus Code	HR ZAGREB01
Students	7200
Campuses	1
Available places	2
Placement duration	Full Year
Specialisms	All aspects of Business
Taught Language	English
Language Support	Semester and monthly courses available through the year: http://www.unizg.hr/homepage/learn-croatian/
Term dates	Early October—Mid July
Website	http://www.unizg.hr/homepage/

Description

The University of Zagreb is the oldest and largest University in South-Eastern Europe, offering education and research in all fields at all levels. Their Erasmus Student Network (ESN) and International Office organise social and welcome events including sessions on history and culture during welcome week. The Faculty of Economics and Business has 8,000 students from Undergraduate to PhD level and its own library, sports facilities and restaurant. The faculty welcomes around 175 exchange students each year.

Surrounding Area

Zagreb has culture, arts, music, architecture and gastronomy—all the ingredients for a quality capital city. The city has a population of around 800,000. Its 'old city' has architecture reminiscent of Vienna, Budapest and Prague. Picturesque medieval towns can be found nearby, and the famous Plitvice lakes are around a 2 hour drive.

Accommodation

Exchange students have the choice of 3 student residences, or private rental. Student residences start a EUR66 per month: <http://www.unizg.hr/homepage/international-exchange/exchange-students/student-services/housing/>

How to apply

When selected by UWE and nominated to The University of Zagreb you will need to provide:

- CV, Learning Agreement
- Transcript and Certificate of Enrolment
- Nomination Letter
- Passport copy

Application deadline: 10 May

Further information

<http://www.unizg.hr/homepage/international-exchange/exchange-students/>